

ALLAN E. BIBLIN
Of Counsel

Practice Area

Charitable Sector
Tax
Trusts & Estates

Legal Expertise

Business and real estate taxation, business planning, charitable giving, and individual and family tax planning.

Industry Focus

Businesses ranging in size from large publicly traded corporations to individual entrepreneurs; entertainment industry including actors, producers, directors, recording artists, songwriters, record companies, motion picture companies, and their advisors

Representative Matters

- Advised numerous clients concerning the most desirable tax structure for new business ventures and alternatives for restructuring existing ventures.
- Heavy emphasis in partnership and corporate formation and dissolution, spin-offs, mergers, and other tax-free reorganizations.
- Estate planning, charitable giving, and tax aspects of marital dissolutions.
- Substantial experience with tax problems relating to the entertainment industry.

Professional Recognition

- "Top 5% of lawyers in Southern California," Southern California Super Lawyers (2004-2014)
- AV® Preeminent™ Rating, Martindale-Hubbell

Publications and Presentations

- Lecturer on various tax topics before bar associations and other groups
- Author of law review articles published in the USC Tax Institute and the Journal of Taxation
- Non-Cash Gifts: Adjustments to Deductible Value, MS&K Tax Legal Update (April 2007)
- New Ruling on REIT's in CRT's, MS&K Charitable Sector Legal Update (March 2007)
- Recent Developments in Estate Planning, MS&K Trusts and Estates Alert (February 2004)
- The Atkinson Case: No Good Deed Goes Unpunished, MS&K Charitable Sector Alert (August 2001)

Professional, Business, and Civic Affiliations

LOS ANGELES

11377 W. Olympic Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90064
(310) 312-3109 direct phone
(310) 231-8309 facsimile
aeb@msk.com

COURT ADMISSIONS

California, 1963

EDUCATION

University of Chicago Law School, J.D.,
1962, Order of the Coif
University of Illinois, B.S., 1957, Phi
Beta Kappa

- Editor, Handbook for Charitable Giving, published by the Jewish Community Foundation of the Jewish Federation Council of Greater Los Angeles

Other Career Experience

- Lecturer, USC Tax Institute (1966, 1969, 1978, 2001)
- Adjunct professor of law at the University of San Diego Law School (1980, 1981)