Our attorneys litigate in both federal and state courts and before administrative and regulatory agencies. The cases the firm handles often involve contractual disputes and business torts, such as fraud and breach of fiduciary duty in complex business settings. In addition, we have handled entertainment, employment, securities, environmental, real estate, construction and unfair competition cases.

Our clients range from public companies to partnerships, small businesses and wealthy individuals. Our lawyers have substantial trial experience and approach each case as a potential trial. This allows our attorneys to focus on the core issues of the case and efficiently litigate these issues. Our trial expertise reaps substantial benefits for our clients during trial, and our ‘trial-ready’ philosophy helps us to obtain better settlements prior to trial through mediation or arbitration proceedings.

corporate and partnership disputes

- Corporate and Partnership Dissolutions
- Breach of Contract and Fiduciary duty claims

Anyone who has served as an officer or director of a corporation or who has been a partner in a partnership, knows that disputes between the principals of a company or partnership are all too frequent. Officers, directors and partners often have legally enforceable obligations of due care, loyalty and honesty to the company, shareholders, partners and to each other. When these fiduciary duties are breached, litigation often follows. Our lawyers prosecute or defend such claims on behalf of officers, directors and partners in disputes arising in diverse business settings.

We have successfully handled litigation involving disputes over control of corporations, minority shareholder claims, corporate mismanagement, dissipation of assets and corporate and partnership dissolutions. This area of the law is particularly intriguing because of the range of options available to the parties. Our lawyers work hand-in-hand with the client to devise and execute a strategy that best fits the particular circumstances of the case. We have secured successful results for numerous clients, either through trial or settlement.

In addition, we are often consulted when potential corporate or partnership disputes appear on the horizon. Our experienced attorneys have been able to provide consultation and creative strategies to prevent the dispute from becoming a litigation matter.
securities litigation

■ Shareholder Derivative Actions

■ Crisis Management

We represent numerous clients in defending class and derivative actions and in litigating tender offers, allegations of insider trading and other major securities-related matters. Our securities litigators have the expertise to recognize critical issues early and we work with our clients to avoid the pitfalls that can turn a defensible lawsuit into a corporate disaster. Our lawyers have successfully represented officers and directors, shareholder groups, securities broker-dealers and underwriters in securities class actions, mismanagement claims and SEC investigations, among other areas.
